

Acting

Welcome to The Actors Academy! I sought out my acting training from professionals working in the industry today. I wanted to get the best acting training I could, so I eventually ended up with private instruction from coaches who had attended Juilliard, Harvard, Yale, RADA, A.C.T, and coaches who'd never gone to drama school. I wanted to get the best all-around training I could find. I gained so much knowledge on acting that I began to realize how easy it really was. Trust me though, I didn't think that in the beginning. You could have looked at me and assumed my acting wouldn't have amounted to anything, but with perseverance and dedication, I found and received world-class training.
